

THE STATE HUMANITIES COUNCILS

AN INVESTMENT IN AMERICA'S COMMUNITIES

The humanities are vital to a thriving democracy.

We urge Congress to provide $167.5 million for the National Endowment for the Humanities and $53 million for the state humanities councils in FY 2020.

Funding History for the NEH and the State Humanities Councils (in millions of dollars)

	FY 2014	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018	FY 2019
Federal/State Partnership	42.435	42.528	43.040	46.000	47.200	48.000
Total, NEH	146.021	146.021	147.942	149.848	152.848	155.000

The $53 million requested for FY 2020 would enable councils to expand their programming and better address the significant unmet demand for their services. Councils stretch the federal investment by leveraging, on average, more than $4 for every federal dollar awarded in grants. The increase requested for NEH and the councils will also provide resources to begin planning for the commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence in 2026. The state humanities councils, with programs in nearly every congressional district, are uniquely positioned to lead this exploration of the ideals and institutions on which this great nation was founded.
